

October 12, 2020

More great news! The nursing home residents are now able to access the beauty salon and have outdoor visits. We continue to test nursing home staff twice weekly. We will not be testing residents again until we have another positive COVID case appear (resident or staff).

All our assisted living programs continue with outdoor visits at this time.

We take one day at a time!

Please continue to pray for Good Shepherd and our nation.

Deb Captain

Executive Director